

ORNELLA POCETTI (ARG, 1991)

Ornella Pocetti was born in Buenos Aires in 1991.

She studied at the University of National Arts in Argentina (UNA) and continued attending different workshops and programmes.

In 2015, she had her first solo show, "Defying time" at Acéfala Gallery (Bs As, Argentina). In 2019 she was selected to participate in "Artistas x Artistas", at Munar Art Center.

Her work can be found in museums and galleries, and also in other mediums such as book covers, movie posters, and children's books.

She was part of various group shows in South America and the United States. Also, her paintings have been selected in numerous contests, such as UADE Arts (2020), Salón nacional (2021), Salón Félix Amador (2018, 2019), Fondo Nacional de las Artes (2018), Premio Itaú (2019), Salón Nacional de Rosario Castagnino-Macro (2018) and X Premio Nacional de Pintura Banco Central (2017). In these last three she also received an award.

Currently, she works in Argentina, managing Paz Soldán Art Studio, where she has her studio, and as a part of the artist collective "Viento dorado".
